School Parliament

The role of parliament provides the opportunity for students to be educated and equipped for future roles outside of education. Students will learn how they can effectively and efficiently carry out their responsibilities for the benefit of all. The role of parliament also brings out the students' leadership qualities for higher responsibilities in future. Serving in the Parliament will develop greater awareness of the rights of others, and what it means to work for not just your own goals but for those of your fellow students as well.

Election for the school parliament was held on 15/07/2019 for 11 different ministries. Out of the 47 nominations 11 got elected
